Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 222 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A real problem for young teenagers with severe reading difficulties, including dyslexia, is the shortage of stories they want to read. (Obviously books aimed at young children are not appropriate.) Based on their considerable research and wide-ranging trials, Anna and Sydney Higgins have written the graded series of books, FUN READ. WHEN THE SONG WAS OVER is the 4th book in the series its Flesch Reading Ease score is 95.3. It is graded as very easy to read . Based on 8 standard readability formulas, it is appropriate for beginners (= 3rd grade/year). The content is most suitable for female students aged 11-16. There are 94 pages and 26 illustrations. WHEN THE SONG WAS OVER deals with problematic relationships that are experienced by many teenagers: Susan was very keen on Terry who played in a pop group but he took no notice of her. When she was walking past Terry s house with her dog, it escaped, chased a cat and smashed Terry s drum set. Poor Susan said she would pay for the damage. Another boy at school, Samson, talked her into singing during the interval at the dance where Terry s group was playing. The singing was a disaster but. The text is displayed not in complete sentences but in phrases - a system that the writers research has shown is the most effective printed layout for easy reading and comprehension. Both Sydney and Anna Higgins have many years of teaching experience. After being a Senior Advisor for English in the UK, Sydney moved to Italy where he became a professor of English. His wife, Anna, has been for over 20 years a university teacher and...
