Not illustrated. 1901 Excerpt: .is a substance which is in its purity the direct offspring of the Spirit. It is the only substance that is permanent. The ego formulates this substance through its imaging faculty. If it is imaged as having length, breadth and thickness, it takes that shape in the consciousness of those who so limit it. If it is imaged as an inert mass without intelligence, it so seems to those who look at it in that way. If it is imaged as corruptible and subject to disintegration and diffusion, it follows such vagaries in the mental world of those who so image it. It is the clay in the hands of the potter, which is never changed as essence but obedient to infinite variety in form. So that which we term matter is a gauzy form which we have imaged for the substantial energy of Spirit, which is the real and only substance. Thus Spirit has its substance side. Mind has its expression in form, and it is legitimate. Mind is not a dead level, an inert abstraction; it is infinite potentiality. It acts, idealizes, and sees its ideals manifested. This is a process having its degrees or steps from inception to finish. The idea is the inception, and the form the finish. Forms represent complete ideals. From the character of the form the character of the ideal may be judged. God created man in His image and after His likeness. To find out the...
